The Delaware Tribe of Indians received notification of an award of $800,000 from the Indian Community Development Block Grant / Housing and Urban Development office for construction of a Social Services Building. The building will house programs for Delaware Tribal members who are in need of referrals or direct services. There will be a small library that will contain resources for Tribal members on various topics such as health issues, diabetes, and nutrition.

A Moment with Chief Paula Pechonick

During the first quarter of 2011, I, along with Tribal Council and staff worked diligently to move the Tribe forward in a positive and progressive way. We continue to make progress daily. The Tribe rolled out a new website. You may visit www.delawaretribe.org for current information, applications and events for the Tribe. We do our best to keep this information current. If you notice a missing item or have information to post, please email lharis@delawaretribe.org or call 918-337-6595. I am operating as a seven person Council, not a Chief with ultimate power. Maybe I expect too much out of my Council but they are readily available to help with training the office staff, the newspaper and whatever else transpires throughout the day and week. When the issue of paying the Tribal Council came before the Council, I supported it. The Council works hard behind the scenes, not just at a meeting once-a-month. The Council and staff are helping uncover the misappropriation of money that has occurred over the last several years. We are now asking for a federal investigation.

I have asked that the Constitution be included in part in this issue to help understand what a Council member’s responsibilities are constitutionally. We have money available for this purpose and I feel like this is money well spent.

Councilmen Jan Brown and Jenifer Pechonick went to Tulsa with me and met with the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. We picked up two checks totaling $338,000. One was for Direct and Indirect Cost, $154,000 and Indian Health Services for $184,000. The IHS monies were left over from our Health and Wellness Center. This was monies the Cherokee Nation owed the Delaware Tribe.

Since November 15, 2010, this administration has:

- rejuvenated the EPA program
- made tribal community and education programs more accessible
- hired Delawares
- supported staff in being helpful to Tribal Members
- reduced the number of holidays for the office
- went back to a full work week
- answered the telephones
- revitalized Economic Development program
- rolled out new website www.delawaretribe.org
- continue to update website
- pond revitalization is underway
- successful at managing snow removal during record blizzard
- Community Center roof repaired
- ongoing organization of stored file
- submitted a list of after-borns for checks, after 3 years of inactivity
- grant applications turned in or underway: Wetlands, library, museum, Title VI, SEDS

I attended RES 2011, an economic development summit hosted by NCAIED. There were many classes throughout the week, speakers and meetings with department heads from Washington, D.C. as well as meetings with financial advisors from Wall Street and explored money available for economic development. I hope to report good news as a result of these meetings in the next issue.

I appreciate your support and input. I need your support and input to continue to move the Tribe forward. Wanishi!

Assistant Chief Chet Brooks Seeks Opinion of Delaware Tribal Members

On January 24, 2011 the Tribal Council, by two separate motions, voted to pay a regular fixed allowance (stipend) by definition of Webster’s Pocket Dictionary - 2001 Edition) to Council Members and to Council Officers other than the Chief who already received a stipend. The amount of the stipend was voted as $160.00 per week for each Council Member and Officer and the stipend would increase 12.5% ($20.00) for each additional year the Council Member had served beyond their first year on the Council. The funds to pay these stipends were stated to come from Oklahoma Fuel Tax Compact or other available funds and a cap of $1,500 per month for any one Council Members stipend.

At the March 7 Council Meeting a former Delaware Tribe Chief presented his objections to these stipends being paid in the form of a February 16, 2011 letter which had already been circulated at Elder Nutrition Lunch and circulated to some degree on the worldwide web. Basics of the former Chief’s complaint are that Council Members knew they would receive a small stipend when they ran for office, 2. salaries were not brought before the General Council in November 2010, and 3. where would we get the money since we had no income from Tribal businesses. He requested that his February 16th letter be posted in this DIN and respectfully ask you read his letter before hearing my response to his complaints. I can agree with the former Chief that attended was being paid when each ran for office. However, I totally disagree with the incorrect implication that “They voted themselves a salary of $7,680 per year.” That would have been a direct violation of our Tribal Constitution & By-Laws - Section 6 of By-Laws, Page 13. Speaking of Delaware Constitution and By-Laws all Tribal Members can find them on line at http://www.delawaretribe.org under Tribal Documents Tab. You can also find the minutes of the January 24th, 2011 Council Meeting on said web site and the minutes of the March 7 Council Meeting should be on line shortly after you receive this DIN. I ask our Tribal Members to read these documents and feel that when you have read them you will understand that it is the adult voter members (all of you that vote) who are the supreme authority in our Tribe, not the General Council as our Former Chief complains. As a matter of fact had this been addressed at General Council 2010 it would be moot. No Quorum of 100 voters was present and there hasn’t been a quorum for the past several years. Yes a General Council vote of 67 out of 100 quorum can override any action of the Tribal Council providing the Tribal Council (governing body) accepts said vote. If Council does not accept then it must go out for referendum to all voters. And yes 100 voters can sign a legal initiative petition and force a referendum, but referendum votes are expensive to conduct unless they are held with regular elections. I do agree with the former chief that we very much need tribal income from businesses and we have paid exorbitant attorney fees (approx. $155,000 paid 2 attorneys in 2010). On the other hand the real question is do we have the money to pay Council Members stipends? I have found within the last few days that we have $677,402.34 in Tribal Council bank accounts (can’t count $3.3+ million in Trust Accounts which cannot and should not be spent on anything but budgeted Trust Plan line items). In addition our Delaware Enterprise Authority has come into at least $550,000, in the last 11 months from business developers.

Also, our new Chief’s Administration has been able to reduce our employee wage cost by approx. $3,984 per month. All of our Council members have agreed to roll back the $1,500 max. stipend to $1,000 per month which would bring the total stipends for all to $5,236 per month minus the $3,984 wage savings and minus the $150 monthly prior stipends leaves a $1,102 per month shortfall to come out of Oklahoma Fuel Taxes, 2 Attorneys and any other available funds. Yes I am personally satisfied we can come up with the $1,102 shortfall and if the two attorneys, and other sources can’t take a small hit then I’m sure each and every council member would take a $184/ month decrease in stipend to make up shortfall. The opinions expressed in this article are strictly my own. Please do our Tribe the favor of expressing your opinion on this subject. My e-mail address is <achilenape@yahoo.com>. I prefer e-mail responses to this subject but you can also phone me on cell # 918-331-6212. If you get my voice mail, please leave your name & Phone #, state you are a Tribal Member and I will return your call as soon as possible.......................... WANISHI
From The Desk Of Wayne Stull,
Trust Board Chairman

Tribal Members, Family and Friends, the last few months have been difficult and trying. The weather was terrible causing a delay in Council as well as Trust Board meetings. We have a new administration, new Chief and tribal office employees. In December 2010, Raymond Cline resigned as Trust Board chairman.

As vice-chairman, I took over. Also, in December Rusty Brown resigned from the Trust Board due to relocation to Alaska, leaving a vacancy. At the March Trust Board meeting Doyle Hayes resigned leaving another opening. Before Mr. Hayes resigned, the four remaining Trust Board members voted to appoint Larry Joe Brooks as a member of the Trust Board. (The chairman only votes if there’s a tie.) This brought the Trust Board back to five members with the remaining two seats to be filled at the next scheduled meeting April 4th. At that time, new committee chairs will be appointed. Currently all programs are active and still being funded as our Trust document permits. Your Trust monies are safe and if the economy keeps improving our interest will grow in 2011 which will in turn provide more money for all budgeted Trust programs, Community service, Land Management, Economic Development, Cultural Preservation, Tribal Operations and Re-investment. With a full Trust Board beginning April 4th, the Delaware Tribe of Indians Trust Board will continue to carry out duties and responsibilities for the Delaware people.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this transition period. The two new Trust Board members will be announced in the next DIN.

Sincerely, Wayne Stull

Delaware Elder Nutrition Program

By Jan Brown,
Hey, fellow Delawares.
We are still waiting to hear from the Title 6 Grant we applied for in November last year. This grant supplies the food and salaries for our Elder Nutrition Program. I’ve been on pins and needles wondering why we hadn’t heard a word. After talking to the Cherokee Nation and finding they had not heard either I’ve settled down some. I also learned the Cherokees will continue funding our Elder Nutrition Program until the grant does go through so there shouldn’t be a shut down while in transition. This should happen sometime in April this year and it is a three year grant so we won’t have to do this again for a while.

A company was found, thanks to Anita Mathis, to finally get the air-conditioner repaired for the kitchen at the Delaware Tribal Center. The cooks were using the dining room air-conditioner and a window fan to combat the heat in the kitchen, making it too cool for the elders in the dining room. Hopefully that will not be a problem this summer and should be much more comfortable for the cooks as well. The unit has been broken for about 4 years. Now we are working to get a replacement window unit for the food storage building that broke 2 years ago. We thought we had units already bought, but this turned out to be false. Finding one that fits should be simple enough.

The Center’s roof has also been repaired. No more leaks when it rains, snows or whatever. The flat roof had been sealed incorrectly from the beginning and no one seemed to know how to fix it. Anita to the rescue again. She knows some very helpful people.

The burned out light bulbs in the dining room have been changed out and a few ballast replaced thanks to a young Delaware man asking to use the building this fall for his wedding. We are so happy for his help and are glad to have the building for his use. Now because of all these repairs we are able to rent out the dining room for gatherings of families or groups without fear of people slipping and falling on wet floors.

Remember; Elders eat 5 days a week at noon at the Center. Come visit. Wanishi.

A Message to the Delaware People from Councilwoman, Verna Crawford

Spring is almost here; soon there will be pow-wows every weekend. The first for me is the Annual Delaware Powwow on Memorial weekend. My family and I always enjoy camping and visiting.

The Tribe started the New Year with new personnel. Marilyn Cole, Tribal Manager and Registration Coordinator, was dismissed at General Council in November. Mary Jo Peterson, Chief Financial Officer, resigned effect December 31, Jamie Weaver, EPA Director also resigned. Anne Swearingin, Accounting Assistant, resigned in mid-March. Gina Parks, Accounting is still on duty. The staff now includes Shirley Moore, Chief’s Assistant and Registration Coordinator, Lacey Harris, Receptionist/Committee Liaison, Jade Johnson, accounting, Frank Hensley, EPA Director and Vickie Bratton, EPA Assistant.

The last three months have been busy ones for us all. The regular Council and Trust Board meetings scheduled for January 10 and February 7 were cancelled due to heavy snow.

The council met on January 24. Jenifer Pechonick was appointed to the Council to replace Raymond Cline, who resigned in December. Other action taken at that meeting was to increase the stipend of the Council members from $25 per meeting attended to $160 per week plus 12.5% ($20) per year served on the Council. These funds are to be taken from the Fuel Tax Compact, (with the state of Oklahoma), or other available funds, (Trust Fund money administered by the Trust Board are NOT available for this use). Trust Board members receive a separate stipend and are NOT INCLUDED in this action.) At $160 per week working just 20 hours this is $8 per hour. It was understood that Council members must attend meetings and work for the Tribe at least 20 hours per week with a monthly cap was set at $1,500 per month. This is not a difficult task, for the Council members have always worked on behalf of the Tribe, mostly away from the Tribal Office. For example, I Chair the Education Committee, Co-Chair the Community Services Committee, and am a member of other committees including Economic Development, Tribal Operations, and Re-Investment. I work on the DIN doing layout, writing some stories and work with the printer. The layout entails collecting the articles from Tribal Members, Council and Trust Board members and other sources and placing all this on the pages ready to be printed. This usually takes from 80 to 100 plus hours over the quarter. I try to spend 2 to three days a week at the office and I am available other times when needed. Jan Brown spends most days at the Tribal office assisting the Chief. Chet Brooks and Jenifer Pechonick may also frequently be found working at the office. Wayne Stull and Bill Hatch work mostly from their homes and still put in many hours for the Tribe.

In January Chief Pechonick, Assistant Chief Brooks, Council member Jan Brown and I attended the BIA Annual Regional Budget meeting in Muskogee, OK. BIA representatives presented an overview of what may be expected in the coming year. Council members attend meetings and conferences representing the Delaware Tribe. These include serving on Boards, Chief Pechonick is a Board Member of the Claremore Indian Hospital, and other council members are assigned many other committee or board responsibilities. As elected officials we collect information that may be beneficial to the Tribe, including economic development projects. We help develop projects for grant applications, research and work on developing programs for our youth, elders and all in between. All of this takes time, dedication and work. These are just some of the activities carried out by the Council members.

I ask on behalf of the Tribal Council, that our Tribal Members give us some time to carry out the work we have begun. I would value comments and suggestions from the Delaware people. Send your questions to me at: vcrfawrd707@yahoo.com, write to me in care of the Delaware Tribe, 107 NE Barbara, Bartlesville, OK 74006, or Verna Crawford, 529 S. Adair, Nowata, OK 74048. You may also send your comments, family stories, graduations, births, weddings, memorials for loved ones who have died and remember the photos to: officialdelawareindiannews@yahoo.com. Wanisha (Thank you) and God bless.

Former Chief Speaks

By Dee Ketchum

Because I served this tribe for many years on the tribal council and trust board and served as tribal chief and chairman of the trust board, I am obviously interested and concerned about what happens to this Tribe and how the new administration sets its foundation for a better Tribe.

I have been informed of a recent vote by the tribal council (Bill Hatch was not there). They voted themselves a salary of $7,680 per year. Each member also receives an additional cell phone benefit of $600 per year, for a total of $8,280 annually. There are six members of the tribal council and this amounts to $49,680 per year, and an additional $12.5%, per year increase for every year of service with a $1,500 cap. This is well over $50,000 per year and will supposedly be paid from the quarterly state fuel tax.

In the past each member was paid a $25 stipend for expenses, if they attended the monthly meeting. No longer will the members receive a “stipend”, it is a salary and is not dependent upon attending meetings.

This is troubling for a number of reasons: first, councilmen knew when they ran for office they would receive a small stipend; second the subject of salaries was not brought before the General Council in November 2010; and thirdly, there is no tribal income from businesses.

The tribal council is afforded rights in the Constitution to conduct the routine business of the Tribe. If however, the tribal membership wants their tribal council members to receive a salary, it should be voted by the people as it was for the chief’s salary. The previous tribal council believed is was the governing body of the Delaware Tribe, not the people. Has anything changed?

If you are a reader or listener of the congressional problems in America today where people have no jobs, businesses are ailing, and the government provides not solutions, you become very upset when the elected officials vote themselves a raise when the economy is flat. When the Tribe has no money coming in from businesses and the attorney fees past and present are exorbitant and must be paid, and the tribal council votes itself a raise from a possible $300 a year stipend to $7,680 a year salary, it doesn’t make sense. If you disagree with the council’s voting themselves salaries, call or e-mail them your disapproval.

Fuel Tax Monies

To Editor and Councilmembers

It was stated in the last meeting that the Councilors are now going to be paid positions out of fuel tax monies or other available funds. Are there not regulations set on how these fuel tax monies will be used? Normally aren’t they earmarked for Scholarships, health funding (eyeglasses, dentures), etc. and not council payment. I could not find a document out on the website to review.

Its not that I don’t agree council should be minimally paid positions for their time and attendance. If they do not attend meetings, the stipulation should be that they do not get paid. They should be appointed by the Delaware people and not by Trust Board members or other Councilors as other Nations.

A tribal council is a representative of the Delaware Tribal members and should not be there to self serve. By paying more than 10% of the budget to Administrative payroll, the Trust document is not being adhered to. Has the budget been posted where the public can see?

I am an accountant and a tribal member. I and other members, I am sure, are very interested to see these items also published on the website, or set up to see within the Delaware paper on a quarterly basis.

Thank you. Please respond accordingly to the peoples’ concerns as quickly as you can. We do not want our people’s government taken away due to non-compliance with the trust document. Also spell check of the minutes would be greatly appreciated. Governmental documents should not have grammatical errors or spelling mistakes. Dawn (Goodman-Dry) Kaahihue Delaware Tribal Member

Editors Note: The action taken was by the Tribal Council. None of the stipends paid to Council members will be taken from the Trust Monies governed by the Delaware Trust Board.

Note: This was received by Council member Wayne Stull and requested to be placed in the DIN with his response.

Council Member Stull Responds

Dawn, fuel tax monies can be used for salaries. Tribal Councilors are elected by the people and should be paid. I can not think of any other tribe that does not pay councilors. Fuel tax monies can be used as the administration deems necessary. Our scholarship, health funding, utility help, culture preservation are supported by our Trust yearly earnings of interest which support a number of programs. I also think that if a Council member does not attend meetings, he or she should not be paid. I know of no Council member or Trust board member that self serves. Our Trust budget is voted on yearly at General Council and the Budget is left as a handout at that meeting. I will check on the 10% administration cost out of Trust but to my knowledge this is not correct. I will ask that your questions be addressed on the web as well as the paper. Thank you for your interest in your Tribal government.

Council member Wayne Stull

Dear Chief Pechonick,

I am donating a set of eight framed pen and ink drawings to the Delaware Tribe of Indians. By identified blood relation to Catawba Tribe, formerly of North Carolina. My drawings are Native American in theme and have sold well in several western galleries. I am no longer directly involved in the art field and wish for the drawings to be associated with an appreciative home. I stayed in Bartlesville for several months in 2004 and learned of your location there at that time. The artwork was placed at Pat’s Uptown Gallery, 214 SE. Frank Phillips Blvd. Sincerely yours, C. Michael Baker

Indian Women’s Wild Onion Dinner Great Success

The Bartlesville Indian Women's Club (BIWC) 59th Annual Wild Onion Dinner was held on Saturday, March 26 at the Dewey Fair Grounds Building, Dewey, Ok. After 58 successful Wild Onion Dinners, you would not expect the BIWC to roll out something new, but they did! This year, there were two opportunities to eat wild onions. The first came and go lunch was a great success. There were approximately 113 diners for lunch and nearly 500 for dinner. Dignitaries present included: Delaware Tribe of Indians Chief Paula Pechonick and Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma Principal Chief Chad Smith as well as several Delaware Tribal Council members, past and present and Cherokee Nation Tribal Council members.

The BIWC raffled two blankets and a book donated from Principle Chief Chad Smith. The theme for the event was “Buckskins and Fringe”. Several ladies from the club modeled their personal buckskin dresses. The table decorations included natural gourds as well as cedar sprigs and cutouts. Tribal member and BIWC 2nd Vice President, Tonya Anna crafted a gourd presentation projected on the wall to educate people about gourds and gourd art. Operation Eagle, who administers both the Johnson O’Malley program and Title VII for Bartlesville Public Schools and parents brought the youth to dance. Attendees were able to enjoy the pow-wow drum and dancers. As a grand finale, all the buckskin dancers and the Bartlesville Indian Women wore their shawls and danced.

The Wild Onion Dinner benefits Indian youth who apply for scholarships. Some of the recipients help with the dinner to show appreciation. Each year Bartlesville Indian Women's Club awards eight to ten scholarships and the students may apply every year until graduation from college.

Tribal Council Minutes

Delaware Tribal Council
December 20, 2010

The Delaware Tribal Council December 20, 2010 regular meeting was held at the Delaware Community Center. Chief Paula Pechonick called the meeting to order at 6:07 pm.

Chet Brooks gave the Invocation.

Present at roll call were Chief Paula Pechonick, Assist Chief Chet Brooks, Secretary Verna Crawford, Treasurer Jan Brown, members, Wayne Stull and Bill Hatch. Raymond Cline was absent.

Chief Pechonick welcomed the guests and asked if anyone would like to address the Council.

Nate Young commented that it was a wonderful thing that Chief Pechonick, Assistant Chief Brooks and Councilmember Wayne Stull went to Washington for consultation. This is going in the right direction. He said that they should be commended.

Guests included Karen Wilson, Mary Huddleston, Charles Randall, Don Mason Jr., Priscilla Mason, Nate Young, Luann Hainline, JoAnn Markley, Jenifer Pechonick, Attorney Vicki Sousa and D. Cass Smith.

Employees present were Anne Swearingin and Mary Jo Peterson.

Verna Crawford moved to accept the agenda as presented. Wayne Stull seconded the motion. All approved.

Wayne Stull moved to approve the minutes of November 22, 2010 with corrections, seconded by Jan Brown.

Discussion: Bill Hatch pointed out that in regard to the discussion of who the judges are there was more discussion and it should be included.

Tribal member, JoAnn Markly, commented that at a former meeting it was stated that the judges had no set rules and they should have some rules. She said there used to be rules, a big thick thing.

Verna Crawford stated that the Judges are issued a binder with rules and ordinances. Paula said there are still rules for judges.

See November minutes for all corrections.

Motion to approve the November 22, 2010 minutes carried with six yes (Pechonick, Brooks, Brown, Stull, Crawford and Hatch).

Wayne Stull moved to approve the minutes of the special meeting November 29, 2010 with corrections, seconded by Jan Brown.

Motion carried with five yes (Pechonick, Brooks, Brown, Stull, Crawford and one abstention (Bill Hatch).

Verna Crawford moved to approve the Treasurer’s report as presented pending Audit. Chet Brooks seconded the motion.

Treasurer Jan Brown said the financial report is presented according to the source of the income such as grants. Some grants we get the money up front and others we must spend then request funds. As a new treasurer I have found that there are a lot of interesting things to learn.

Motion to accept the Treasurer’s report as presented pending Audit was approved with six yes (Pechonick, Brooks, Brown, Stull, Crawford and Hatch).

Bill Hatch commented that Mary Jo notified us at the last meeting that her time with us is short. He said “Mary Jo brought to the tribe a very essential level of professionalism, honesty, and an insight at a time that it was direly needed. I think she deserves a round of applause.”

Now having said that, for us none CPA’s. The financials are well and good, but what I want to know how much is coming in, how much is going out. What is percentage of the funds are going to professional fees. Who reviews these things. How much money does it take to operate this tribe? How much money went out in salaries, fees, travel or whatever. That is what I call a financial report. How much comes in on November 1 and what is left on November 31 and what is coming on December 1.

Treasurer Jan Brown pointed out that is all in the report we receive. You want it to be simpler, she asked Bill.

Bill said yes it should be very simple, income, outgo, very simple.

Unfinished Business:

Chief Pechonick noted that the council would now address the recommendations of the Personnel Committee.

Verna Crawford moved to hire Marilyn Coffee for the Library Grant position as recommended by the personnel committee. Wayne Stull seconded the motion.

Discussion: The Library person will scan historical and other tribal documents.

Motion carried with six yes (Pechonick, Brooks, Brown, Stull, Crawford, Hatch).

Verna Crawford moved to approve the 2011 holiday schedule as recommended by the personnel committee. All approved.

Wayne Stull moved to reappoint Jan Brown as Director of the National Gaming Commission, Jackie Johnson, Executive Director of National Congress of American and other gaming people were there, they talked about what President Obama has done for Indians in the past year. Chairman Tracy Stevens, Executive Director of the National Gaming Commission talked about the coming regulations that will affect all Indian Tribes.

The entire first day was spent listening to what progress the tribes have made in the past year under the Obama administration. We were in a Senate room all day.

Chief Paula Pechonick said that Tom Cole was late on the agenda. We were introduced to him. Then leaving we were on the elevator with him.

Chief Pechonick spent most of the second day being instructed on how the meeting with the President will be conducted.

To move projects ahead that need Governmental approval or assistance, the people we met with told us the way to get things done in Washington is to hire a good lobbyist. If this is not affordable spend the money on ourselves and come to Washington on your own behalf. We were told that in several meetings.

Chief continued saying they had a very good meeting with the BIA, in George Skabine’s office. We talked with them about putting land into trust, gaming and other economic development.

Chet Brooks stated that the further we get from home, the harder it will be to do.

Verna Crawford reported on attending National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) with Assistant Chief Chet Brooks. She presented a copy of resolutions passed at the meeting, as well as other information on many government and Business programs available. She noted on a conference coming in March will be the Reservation Economic Summit. Wayne Stull commented that is one of the most important Conferences to attend.

Crawford also noted that NCAI has established the Native American Embassy. Tribe’s may use the facility when in Washington. Fund raising is still underway to improve and maintain the Embassy.

Chet Brooks commented that at NCAI there are general sessions in the mornings and breakout sessions in the afternoon. Two people cannot cover all of the sessions. We need to send at least four people to NCAI.

Meeting recessed at 7:35 p.m.

Meeting was called back to order at 7:55 p.m.

Continuing the NCAI report, Verna noted that besides the breakout sessions there are standing committees and subcommittees that review resolutions. The committees give reports on Friday and this is how the resolutions are approved.

This was one of the best meetings I had attended, there were about 3,000 people in attendance.

Wayne Stull noted that a few years ago NCAI, by resolution supported the restoration of the Delaware Tribe. It is unusual for NCAI to come out in support of Tribes seeking recognition.

Vicki Sousa said she had an issue in Nov 22nd minutes regarding the Draft proposal of a Final Settlement Agreement regarding Certain Claims, Docket No. 02-26L to be presented to the United States Court of Federal Claims. The suggested correction was, “Vicki advised that we were bound by the Federal Court of Indian Claims historical statements”. Chief Pechonick called for the treasurer’s report.

Treasurer Jan Brown gave the report, stating that a page added at the end of the financials was prepared to give a basic account of where the money comes from and where it goes as requested at the last meeting. I am not completely happy with this, but it is a work in progress, Brown stated.

Anne Swearingin suggested presenting year to date and monthly information. Ann and Financial Director Trona Walls will work on that in January.

Motion carried with five yes. (Pechonick, Brooks, Brown, Crawford, Stull).

Chief Pechonick asked if this brings our enrollment up to date? Ann replied yes.

Continuing with the office report, Ann said Trona Walls has been getting bids for the concrete and other work around the pond for the walkway. She has also been supervising a crew to clean out and organize the materials stored in the poolroom and the storage barn. Everyone has been working hard on this project in addition to their regular duties.

We are in the process of finishing up the Tribe’s audit and starting the Trust audit this week.

Ann advised the Council that Brice Obermyer, Director of the Historic Preservation Department, would like to hire a part-time bookkeeper for 10 hours a week at $10 per hour. He has a person he would like to hire. She announced that the contract cleaning person, who has worked for the Tribe for four years, has requested to be hired as a part-time employee. His reason for requesting the change is so taxes may be held out of his pay and he will not have to deal with paying his own taxes. Ann said that she would ask him if he would agree to have a backup withholding. It was decided that both positions would be addressed in Executive session.

Chief Pechonick stated that this bunch has been cleaning house. One longtime problem has been that the enrollment files have been in the storage barn. Now we are cleaning out a room in the office building to have better access to them.

Wayne Stull commented that people keep contacting him about enrollment. Discussion established that we do not have a genealogy department at this time. It is the current policy to send an enrollment form to applicants and they provide the genealogy information.

The council agreed that all the parties, Mr. Mason, Mr. Smith and John Sumpter, Color Guard representative, need to get together and come up with one plan. The Delaware War Mothers should be consulted also.

Addressing payment of the bill to Dorsey and Whitney, an attorney firm that was employed by the Tribe a few years ago. At one time we were paying them $500 per month. The balance is about $35,000. Vicki Sousa was direct ed to contact the firm and make an offer and report to the Council at the February 7 meeting.

Chief Pechonick moved on with a discussion sending representatives to RES 2011, (Reservation Economic Summit) in Las Vegas, Nevada in March. The Conference will be held March 13 to 17. The estimated cost per person will be $1,700 including air fair.

Delaware Tribal Council
February 14, 2011
Prepared by Lacey Harris

Chief Paula Pechonick calls meeting to order at 6:15 pm

Innovation by Chet brooks

Roll call is taken at 6:20, members included Chet Brooks, Wayne Stull, Jan Brown, Jenifer Pechonick, Verna Crawford.

Verna advises the council that Bill Hatch is absent due to a recent fall on the ice, and is recovering from blood clots in his arm.

Guest in the audience included Ken Bellmard, Dick Lillard, Rich Lillard, Priscilla Mason, Jan Mason, and Nate Young. Tribal employees included Vicki Sousa, Lacye Harris and Greg Brown.

Chief Pechonick to accept agenda, Wayne advises to suspend agenda for guest presentation.

Chief Pechonick then welcomes guest.

- Motion by Verna to move new business above the approval of minutes, Jan Brown seconded.

- Don Mason mentions internship program in the RSU building, 6th floor on Wednesday at 3:00 pm. All council members invited to join.

- Wayne Stull addresses Chief Pechonick that at this time the Tribal Attorney should introduce the guest.

Dick Lillard stands to speak and thanks the council, mentioning a previous conversation involving the 275 acres and the advantages the land could give. He mentions he is the broker on the land, and introduces Ken Bellmard to speak on the private placement and bond issue’sconstituting the buying land.

- Ken Bellmard introduces himself and begins to talk about our acquisition of 2.5 million in tax exempt bond issue allocation. He mentions that for 20 years they have been trying to get the IRS to reauthorize Tribes to use the tax exempt bonds to finance projects.

This would be a bond, not a grant, so the money would have to be repaid. He calls it a debt instrument.

Ken remarks a year and a half ago there was a window of opportunity, to make these applications for several tribes in Oklahoma including the Delaware tribe. Although it was not funded, it was authorized. 33 million was asked for in bond allocation, and what the IRS did was reduce every Tribes amount. Even though 33 million would probably not be used, knowing it would be reduced, they asked for the whole amount and got 22.5 million in tax exemp tion allocation. The bonds are made to finance anything except a Casino, it is only for economic development.

Verna Crawford brings to notion the projects currently placed, are ones that were developed and trying to get funded previously. Ken replies that it was a neat deal and they were going to be happy to do it, but at the same time nothing was heard to move on.

Jenifer Pechonick-asked if repayment would start right immediately. Ken responded to Jenifer, it would depend on how you negotiate. He anticipates its something that is going to be bridge financing.

Until the actual money from the bond comes into the project, you would have to get another source that would do the bridge financing.

Verna-addresses Ken with some concerns about getting ratings, and the Tribe hurting financially if the project fails. Ken advises that the project will sell itself. The bank determine whether they think there is definable money that will come out of the money. With that, they will fund the project with a private placement.

Jack Tatum-asked if there is any hidden cost. Ken said once the project is started, any fees will be combined with the bond. Private placement will cut cost.

Jenifer-asked, if we go forward with the private placement and go to the bank and they give us an interest rate that is double, can we say we are going to go after a different place. Ken replies that we are not locked into anything, and once it gets out, banks will be calling trying to offer us a lower rate, and we can negotiate from there. He said we are the negotiators. Dick and Ken ask for any further questions, then thanks the Council.

When Lightning Or A Hail Storm Strike Take precautions for Safety
By Melonie Downs, Procurement Officer Delaware Housing Authority

There are three main ways lightning enters homes and buildings: (1) is a direct strike, (2) through wires or pipes that extend outside the structure, and (3) through the ground.

A. Unplug any appliances or electronic equipment from all conductors well before a thunderstorm threatens-do not unplug equipment during a thunderstorm as there is a risk you could be struck.

B. Don’t touch electrical equipment or cords. Unplug electronic equipment before the storm arrives.

C. Avoid plumbing. Do not wash your hands, take a shower or wash dishes.

D. Stay away from windows and doors, and stay off porches. Do not lie on concrete floors and do not lean against concrete walls.

E. When hail hits, it can shred roof coverings and lead to water damage to your ceilings, walls, floors, appliances and personal possessions. It can also break the windows throughout your home.

F. Attach window shutters to the outside of the home to protect windows from breaking. Because large pieces of hail can shatter windows, close your drapes, blinds or window shades to prevent the wind from blowing broken glass inside.

G. Stay away from skylights and doors.

The qualifications for assistance through the HADT housing programs are: the family must have at least one member who is a member of a federally recognized Native American tribe and the family’s combined income cannot exceed the Nation Median Income limit established by HUD. Currently the income limit for a family of four is $51,500. The current chart is posted in the HADT lobby or you may call the office for this information. All information submitted on the application will be subject to third-party verification and all applicants 18 years and older must pass a criminal background check.

The HADT has one, two and three and bedroom units with central heat and air, 1 or 1-1/2 baths (depending upon unit size) washer & dryer hook-ups, most have a fenced back yard and a single or double garage.

Rent is based on 25% (not to exceed 30%) of the family’s adjusted income and the ceiling rents currently range from $200 to $400 per month. A security deposit of $100 per bedroom is required at move in. Program participants will have a yearly recertification for continued occupancy and an annual inspection of the rental unit is also a requirement of the program.

Applications are available at the HADT office located at #6 Northview Drive, Chelsea, OK, or by visiting the HADT’s website at hadt.org. Feel free to contact the HADT office for more information regarding our housing programs or for help if assistance is needed in completing the housing application. Delaware Tribal Housing Authority Board of Commissioner meeting are the Second Tuesday of each Month at 1:00 pm at the Housing Authority’s office in Chelsea.

Summer Heat Safety Tips
By Rick Adair, Assistant Director Delaware Housing Authority

During late spring and summer many people like to spend time outside in the sun for fun. But overexposure to the sun can damage the skin and could cause skin cancer. Heat stroke, heat exhaustion, heat cramps and heat rash are possible when you become overexerted in the heat. Put your health first in order to enjoy the summer. Here are a few safety tips:

• Wear a wide-brimmed hat to keep your head and face cool. This will also provide added protection from damaging sun exposure. Baseball caps provide little protection except to the face. A hat should protect the neck, face and ears.

• Wear sunscreen that has an SPF of at least 15. Make sure children are also adequately protected.

• Wear a long-sleeved shirt at all times. It should be light colored and loose fitting except when working around machinery.

• Carry a source of water with you. Take drinks frequently—every 15 minutes.

• Take frequent breaks in the shade or in a cool environment during the hottest times of the day.

• Adjust gradually to working in the heat over a period of 10-20 days.

• Someone suffering from heat exhaustion or heat stroke should be moved to a cool environment, offered sips of water, if conscious, and provided with attention from emergency medical personnel.

• Wear sunscreen that has an SPF of at least 15. Make sure children are also adequately protected.

Keep in mind these questions before going outside: Is fresh water available? Is sunscreen with an SPF of at least 15 on hand? Is protective clothing available and being worn?

Enjoy the season and be safe.

After Three Years Inactivity, the Afterborn List is Revisited

The office has been working diligently on the “afterborn” list. This is a list of tribal members born between October 3, 1972-August 01, 1980 and was compiled for a per capita payment. Years ago, tribal members received a judgment from trust settlements, but the “afterborn” list includes tribal members that were born after these disbursements. Many checks were mailed in 2007 to this age group. Some of the checks that went out were returned with bad addresses and we still have members for which we are searching. Please contact the tribal office at 918-337-6595 or email lharris@delawaretribe.org if you have information about missing “afterborns”. If you have confirmed a correct address in recent months, you should receive a check within the next 60 days. The checks are not mailed out from the tribal office and go through two offices and a court system to be mailed. If you move, you need to change your address with the post office or your check will be returned.

A Long Line of Cherokee Service...

Principal Chief Smith comes from a long line of Cherokee patriots and leaders. He is the great grandson of Redbird Smith, a Cherokee Senator and traditionalist who resisted the federal policy of forced allotment at the turn of the century. His grandmother, Rachel Johnson Quinlin, walked tirelessly throughout her life to enable the Cherokee government to recover from the devastating effects of that policy. As Principal Chief, Chad has carried on that legacy, fighting to uphold the inherent rights and sovereignty of the Cherokee Nation. Chad has served the Cherokee people in many capacities since the early 1970's, including as a Tribal Planner, Educator, Attorney, Director of Justice and Historian. As Principal Chief, he has overseen an unprecedented growth in economic development, job creation, education and tribal services.

Chief Smith holds a B.A. in Education from the University of Georgia; a Master’s Degree in Public Administration from the University of Wisconsin and a Juris Doctorate, Law from the University of Tulsa. He recently earned an additional Master’s Degree in Hospitality Management from University of Nevada, LV.

Principal Chief Smith Has Done
What He Said He Would Do...

- Championed a Free Press newspaper, open records and transparent government with print and video annual reports to the Cherokee people
- Provided for a fiscally responsible government, with the Cherokee Nation earning nine consecutive awards for Excellence in Government Accounting
- Encouraged the development of Cherokee communities with self help projects including 30 community buildings, 122 miles of water lines, and a partnership to build 450 miles of rural roads.
- Created over 5,000 jobs
- Promoted education with $20 million contributed to public schools and 23,000 college scholarships
- Ensured our citizens receive for 4,200 homes, the construction of three elderly housing facilities, and the delivery of more than 384,000 meals for the Cherokee elderly
- Worked to preserve our language and culture with 80 children in the Cherokee immersion school, over a thousand history and language classes, restored the Cherokee Nation Supreme Court building, dedicated money to purchase Cherokee art for all new construction, organized nationally acclaimed art exhibits, released eight youth Choir CDs exclusively in the Cherokee language and secured release of all application for the Cherokee syllabary on the iPhone.
- Improved health care by tripling the patient visits per year and building or expanding clinics in Muskogee, Vinita, Bartlesville, Tahlequah, Jay, Norman, and Salina, as well as taking over management of Hastings Hospital with $9 million in improvements.
- Ensured a stable and productive government as recognized with countless awards in Veteran Affairs, Social Work, Health, Community Development and Education

And He Will Continue Leading The Tribe In The Right Direction

- Provide honest leadership and administer an open government
- Respect and uphold the Cherokee Nation constitution and laws
- Listen to and understand the needs of Cherokee people
- Encourage participation and engage Cherokee communities in their government
- Create jobs and grow our economy
- Preserve and Promote the Cherokee language, history and culture

The Cherokee Nation has made good strides under its current administration. We take great comfort in the strength of our Creator and in the values of our ancestors. They led by example in working together and doing what is right for one another and our nation. It is in this spirit of “go do gi” that we will find the strength to accomplish something worthwhile. With Chad and Chris we have the continuity, strength and dedication in leadership needed to keep moving forward in a positive direction.

ELECT FOR
CHEROKEE NATION
DEPUTY CHIEF

Chris
Soap

“Growing up we were taught that it is the Cherokee way to be industrious, self-sufficient, and responsive in the service of our families, and our Cherokee communities. Demonstratively Cherokee people take pride in the cultural values and principles inherited from our ancestors. Today we have become leaders in open government and financial responsibility while creating thousands of new jobs and helping Cherokee to help themselves more. I think it is obvious to anyone who looks at how far the Cherokee Nation has come since Chad Smith became Chief that he has done a great job. I’m glad to have been a part of it the past few years on the Tribal Council. I look forward to working with the Cherokee people and Chief Smith as Deputy Chief to continue building on a strong foundation that began a short decade ago. Improving efficiency in delivery of services to Cherokee citizens, identifying community economic development opportunities and dedication of more resources toward educational and career development opportunities will be my focus as we continue moving forward in the right direction.” - Chris Soap

A Long Line of Cherokee Service...

Deputy Principal Chief candidate Chris Soap was born and raised in Tahlequah, Oklahoma and comes from a family of traditional public servants. Like his dad, Charlie Soap, his mother Lyn Whittington, and his step-mother, Wilma Mankiller, Chris has devoted his life to community service. Since 2007, he has served as a Cherokee Nation Tribal Councilor, serving as co-chair of the Community Services Committee and the Resource Committee. He also serves on the Health, Education and Culture, Rules and Executive Finance committees. Chris brings a common sense approach to problem solving, using the lessons he learned from his parents, teamwork, self-reliance, trust and faith in his ability to improve the lives of Cherokee people. He represents a bright new generation of educated, experienced and dedicated Cherokee leadership.

Chris has a B.S. in Biology from Northeastern State University. He began in an entry level position with an international company located in the Mid-America Industrial Park and worked his way up to plant manager responsible for 80 employees. I look forward to being a part of what he and Chris do in the coming years. - Joe Grayson, Jr., Deputy Chief 2003 - 2011

I am very proud of the things that Chris has accomplished. I know that he will continue to be of great service in doing the Cherokee people’s work as Deputy Chief. Chris and Principal Chief Chad Smith have my full support as they did from Wilma. It was very important to Wilma that I share with you her letter of support for Chris below. It is the very last official document that Wilma signed before her passing last year. Wilma!

Endorsement of Chris Soap for
Deputy Chief of the Cherokee Nation
April 4, 2010

I am endorsing Chris Soap for Deputy Chief of the Cherokee Nation in the 2011 election. Here are the reasons why:

Chris is an extraordinary young man by any measure. He has wisdom way beyond his years. He is polite and respectful, but also his own man. If he believes in something, he stands up for it.

Chris is also a successful businessman who entered the company at the bottom and worked his way up. He works hard and humbly in the community.

Chris Soap is the real deal – genuine, gentle, strong, of good mind and heart. I’ve seen him work late into the night in the farthest reaches of our communities when people needed his help. He has his father’s people skills and heart, but the truth is that I would be endorsing him whatever his family. I hope everyone may come to know and trust Chris just as I have done on his path to becoming a Tribal leader.

Deadline Approaches For Native Americans In Indian Trust Settlement

Certain Class Members Must Act By April 20, 2011

Washington, D.C. – March 29, 2011 – The Court-ordered process of notifying individual Indians of their legal rights in the historic $3.4 billion class action Settlement, Cobell v. Salazar, is coming to a close. The Settlement resolves claims related to Individual Indian Money (or IIM) accounts and interests in land held in trust or restricted by the federal government for the benefit of individual Indians.

Class Members all over the country have received detailed information about their legal rights and options via U.S. Mail and through an extensive media campaign, which included Native American print media, television and radio ads, and online advertising.

Class Members who received a formal notice in the mail about the Settlement and who are currently receiving IIM account statements do not have to do anything to receive payment. Individuals who believe they should be part of the Settlement but did not receive a notice in the mail or are not receiving IIM account statements need to fill out a Claim Form as soon as possible, available at the Indian Trust website or by calling the toll-free number.

Class Members who wish to keep their right to sue the federal government over mismanagement claims covered by the Settlement must exclude themselves from the Settlement by April 20, 2011. Class Members can also submit written comments or objections about any Settlement terms that concern them by April 20, 2011.

The Settlement provides a $1.5 billion fund to compensate an estimated 500,000 affected individual Indian trust beneficiaries who have or had IIM accounts or hold an interest in trust or restricted land. The Settlement creates two groups of Class Members eligible to receive money from the fund—the Historical Accounting Class and the Trust Administration Class.

- The Historical Accounting Class comprises individual Indians who were alive on September 30, 2009, who had an open IIM account anytime between October 25, 1994 and September 30, 2009, and whose account had at least one cash transaction.
- The Trust Administration Class comprises individual Indians alive on September 30, 2009, who had an IIM Account at any time from September 30, 2009, recorded in currently available electronic data in federal government systems, as well as individual Indians who, as of September 30, 2009, had a recorded or demonstrable interest in land held in trust or restricted status.

Under the Settlement Agreement, $1.9 billion will fund a Department of the Interior program to buy fractionalized interests in trust or restricted land from willing sellers to benefit tribal communities and aid in land consolidation. Depending on the level of participation in the land consolidation pro-
Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office Update

The Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office (DTHPO) is tasked with protecting and preserving sites of cultural and religious significance to the Delaware Tribe. Such sites would include locations such as current and past cemeteries and grave, archaeological sites, traditional cultural properties and most importantly reburial sites. The DTHPO is funded by the revenue generated from the consultation fees provided by private companies who require our services. A vast majority of our daily time is spent providing formal and timely responses to consultation requests from public and private companies. Beyond such routine work, we also have the following news and items of interest to the public.

The Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office will be hosting a NAGPRA Seminar on the topic of Delaware Burial Practices in the Archaeological Record on May 27, 2011. This one-day event will bring together archaeologists, museum representatives and tribal members to share their experiences and research on the topic. The goal of the presentations is to incorporate contemporary tribal perspectives with the ways in which archaeologists interpret the artifacts found at past Delaware gravestones in order to better access the funerary nature of such objects. The seminar will be held at the Delaware Community Center in Barsteville and is free and open to the public. The presentations will begin at 8:30am and conclude at 4:30pm. Lunch and refreshments will be provided for those who attend.

Beyond this one-day seminar, we continue to encourage any tribal member that would like to provide us with their experiences at traditional Delaware funerals to contact Brice Obermeyer at (918) 335-7026 or bobermeyer@emporia.edu. Participation is voluntary and the information provided will be used to help our office in our ongoing repatriation efforts to rebury Delaware human remains and funerary objects housed in museum collections.

Lenape Culture Day, March 19, 2011

The Delaware Nation and the Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office cosponsored the Lenape Culture Day at the Delaware Nation tribal headquarters in Anadarko. Among the presenters from the Delaware Tribe were Titus Frenchman, James Jackson, Nicky Michael, Levi Randoll, Lyndsey Trusler and John Sumpter. Participants also enjoyed an afternoon of Delaware, Euche and Caddo social dances at the outdoor ground next to the Delaware Nation’s replica Big House building. Plans are currently underway to host a similar event in Barsteville during the coming year.

The Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office invites applications from undergraduate and graduate students interested in an internship opportunity for the Summer and Fall 2011 semesters. Two internships will be accepted with one serving in the summer and one in the fall. The selected interns must be enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program and will need to enroll in an internship course that is offered by their educational institution. This is an unpaid opportunity that will provide valuable on the job experience in, and familiarity with, the growing field of tribal historic preservation. To apply, please submit a brief letter of interest addressing the qualifications below and an unofficial transcript to Dr. Brice Obermeyer, Delaware Tribal Historic Preservation Office, 1420 C of E Drive, Emporia, KS. If wishing to be considered under this preference, please include a photocopy of your CDIB and/or tribal membership card.

THPO and IMLS Grants submitted

The Delaware Tribe Historic Preservation Office submitted two grants during this past winter with the considerable assistance from our collaborators at Missouri State University and staff at the Delaware Tribal Headquarters. The first is a Historic Preservation Fund grant that provides up to $40,000 for tribe’s to undertake specific projects related to identifying and protecting important historic sites. This year’s proposal is to partner with the Center for Archaeological Research at Missouri State University in Springfield to survey and inventory the historic Delaware sites in the James River Valley that date to the tribe’s early nineteenth century occupation of the region. If funded, the added support would allow us to survey an additional 500 acres in the James River Valley while also providing training to tribal members with an interest in archaeology. The grant would also allow us to nominate two Delaware occupation sites to the National Register of Historic Places and expand our GIS map database to include the Delaware sites in southwest Missouri. We should know by June of this year if the proposal is funded.

The second grant is a much more modest proposal ($7,000) to the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) to provide a basic library services. As was submitted last year, we requested support to allow us to continue to scan and digitize important tribal documents. This project would continue in collaboration with the Barsteville Library and the Barsteville History Museum who are providing training and technical support for the project. We will know if the funds are awarded in June of this year. The successful submission of this grant will allow us to apply for an additional $150,000 to enhance and expand our project goals. The deadline for the enhancement proposals is May of this year and we plan to submit an application.

Denver Museum of Nature and Science

The Denver Museum of Nature and Science held a consultation meeting with representatives from all of the federally recognized tribes with an ancestral connection to the state of Pennsylvania. The consultation was an effort to document and repatriate three sets of human remains that were excavated from a well-known historic Susquehannock village. As a result of loans made from a private collection, the Denver Museum is now in possession of the remains and is working to return the remains to the appropriate tribe.

The challenge has been that the remains are known to be Susquehannock and there is no Susquehannock Tribe today. Thus, according to the law, the remains were previously considered “culturally unidentifiable.” Following the consultation and in collaboration with the related tribes, the Denver Museum has now been convinced that the closest affiliated tribe is the Onondaga Nation while also recognizing that some Susquehannocks merged with the Delaware Tribe during the removals from Pennsylvania. This historic turn of events presents a milestone for our efforts and the efforts of other Delaware, Shawnee and Iroquoian tribes who can now begin the important task of repatriating and reburying human remains and funerary objects throughout the state of Pennsylvania that are identified as culturally unidentifiable.

Bright Beginnings Celebrates NAEYC Accreditation and 3 Star Status!

On February 1st, 2011, Bright Beginnings, a Delaware Child Development program in Claremore OK, became accredited through the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). On April 1st, 2011, Bright Beginnings will be recognized by State Licensing as a 3 Star Center, as well. These two high achievements mark the level of excellence at which Bright Beginnings operates daily.

National accreditation is an optional achievement for child development centers, requiring daily practices superior to that which local agencies mandate. Several national organizations are recognized to accredit early childhood programs and NAEYC is regarded as one of the best. Achievement of accreditation through NAEYC comes after a lengthy and difficult process of meeting each criterion expressed as best practice for children. This lengthy process, along with successful evaluation by a NAEYC assessor, earns accreditation for a child development center. Bright Beginnings completed this process and became accredited February 1st, 2011. The center will hold this credential for five years. This makes Bright Beginnings the first full-day child development program in Claremore, OK to be NAEYC accredited.

Bright Beginnings then applied to be recognized as a 3 Star Center in the state of Oklahoma. This application was approved for April 1st, 2011, making Bright Beginnings one of only two, 3 Star full-day programs in Rogers County, OK. The only other full-day, 3 Star Center is Secondine Child Development Center (a Delaware Child Development program) in Chelsea, OK. The Oklahoma Reaching for the Stars Program offers star ratings of 1+, 2, and 3, with 3 Star being the highest level possible. These two Delaware Child Development centers have achieved and maintain the highest level of performance recognized by State Licensing.

Bright Beginnings is proud to be a NAEYC accredited, 3 Star Center. These achievements provide concrete evidence of the quality of care offered at this center. Currently, Bright Beginnings has 52 children enrolled and several more on a waiting list. The center is active in the community, bringing awareness to the crucial role of quality childcare for families and children. Bright Beginnings employs many bachelor degreed staff and offers strong provider/parent relationships. Varied learning activities, guided by a play-based curriculum called Creative Curriculum, are offered every day to all ages. Family meetings, trainings and special events are regularly scheduled at the center. Children and families throughout Claremore, Oklahoma are proud to call Bright Beginnings their school and to make it an extension of their home.

Three of four of the Delaware Child Development centers are nationally accredited centers. The other centers are located in Bartlesville, OK and Caney, KS.
