

Rose Pavluk Memorial Scholarship Application

The Delaware Tribe of Indians is pleased to introduce the Rose Pavluk Memorial Scholarship program for enrolled Delaware Tribal Members. This Scholarship is created in honor of Rose Pavluk whose generosity and open heartedness touched so many.

Funded by the family of Rose, this program is intended to provide economic relief for Delaware Tribal Members obtaining higher education.

This application determines eligibility for the program.

Rose Pavluk Memorial Scholarship: This program is to provide financial assistance for Delaware Tribal members who are enrolled in higher education, ensuring access to adequate funding to support their post-secondary education including two year or community college or four-year college. This Program is meant to provide Delaware Tribal members with financial support for affording College/University costs.

The family of Rose Pavluk have set aside $4,000 annually and worked with the Tribal Council to implement this Scholarship Program to assist Delaware Tribal members access to afford higher education. Two eligible full-time applicants will receive $1,500 in scholarship funding, and two part-time applicants will receive $500 in scholarship funding annually.
