

Collections Care & Management

(MST 350)

Earn college credits and begin a career in cultural resources or museums/archives, all expenses paid!

- ❖ 10 Seats Available
- ❖ 3-week accelerated course (1 week virtual, 2 weeks on site)
- ❖ Flexible online instruction
Dec 16 – Jan 3
- ❖ Jan 6-17 On-Site
(Travel costs covered)
- ❖ All expenses paid!

There is no cost to participants. Per Diem will be provided for the in-person session. All costs are funded through the DOI- National Park Service.

JOIN US AT WEST CHESTER UNIVERSITY FOR A 3-WEEK COLLECTIONS MANAGEMENT TRAINING COURSE!

This accredited course is based upon the Register of Professional Archaeologists (RPA) and American Alliance of Museum (AAM) recommendations and will prepare participants for Secretary of Interior Certification.

Participants will learn:

- Relevant Federal and Tribal and Museum Policy and Practice,
- Cultural Heritage Management Techniques,
- Collections Management Policy and Practice

All participants will earn 3 college credits and practical experience working with material and record collections relevant to museum and archival settings, and within Tribal Historic Preservation Offices.

For more information contact Susan Bachor, Tribal Historic Preservation Officer, at (539) 529-1671 or sbachor@delawaretribe.org or tsp@wcupa.edu.