

Delaware Tribe of Indians Proposed Draft Master Plan Delaware Judgment Funds

Introduction

The Delaware Tribe of Indians sets forth this plan to provide the implementation and administration of the Delaware Tribal Judgment Funds.

The plan will be administered by the Delaware Tribe of Indians under the supervision of the Delaware Tribe of Indians Judgment Funds Oversight Commission (hereafter referred to as “Commission”).

I. The Purpose of the Plan

The overall purpose of the plan is:

1. Safeguard the assets of the Delaware Tribe of Indians and members;
2. To establish the rules and regulations to govern the administration of the Plan and;
3. To ensure that every eligible Delaware Tribe of Indians Tribal member has an opportunity to benefit from the use of the Tribal assets and investments.

The plan will identify general administrative guidelines to ensure effective delivery of services to the Delaware people.

II. Background

The Trust Board of the Delaware Tribe of Indians was implemented in 1990 due to demand from the Federal Government to release the Tribe’s trust funds when the Tribe was not recognized. The U.S. Secretary of the Interior conducted an election in 2009 and recognized the results approving the Constitution of the Delaware Tribe of Indians as the Governing Document of the Delaware Tribe. In 2011, the members of the Tribe voted to keep the money in the fund protected in secure interest bearing accounts. The judgment funds formerly under Federal Government control are now under control of the Trust Board on behalf of the Delaware Tribe of Indians. The plan does not require approval by the Secretary of the Department of Interior.

III. Methodology

1. Any future Judgment funds released to the Delaware Tribe of Indians will be added to the principal.
2. The principal of the Judgment funds will remain in secure interest bearing accounts.

3. All annual interest accumulated during the Tribe's fiscal year shall be transferred to the management of the Commission with supervision of the plan by the Commission.
4. All money under the supervision of the Commission shall be audited in the Delaware Tribe of Indians annual audit by an independent certified audit firm.
5. Only registered members of the Delaware Tribe of Indians are eligible to apply for tribal services and programs presented in this plan.
6. Payments and services shall be made according to committee guidelines. Guidelines require approval of the Tribal Council and overseen by the Commission.
7. All funds allocated to a program within this plan not properly dispersed at the conclusion of the Tribe's fiscal year shall rollover to the program's next fiscal year budget for proper disbursement.
8. Any drawdown of the principle shall require a 2/3 majority of votes cast by eligible voting membership.
 - a. Any drawdown of the principal shall not be more than 20% nor occur more than once a year.
9. This Master Plan may be amended by 2/3 majority of votes cast by eligible voting membership.
 - a. It shall be the duty of the Chief to call for an election for the purpose of amending the Master Plan when:
 - i. petition signed by at least one hundred (100) registered voters, setting forth the full text of the proposed amendments, has been filed with the Tribal Council Secretary, or
 - ii. The Tribal Council, passes a resolution by a 2/3 majority vote, calling for an amendment to the Master Plan.

IV. Formation and Implementation of the Commission

The Tribe's current Trust Board will be replaced by the Commission. Trust Board members currently serving on the Trust Board shall serve as the Commissioners at their pleasure:

1. Provided they are not also Tribal Council Members or members of the Delaware Economic Authority (DEA);
2. Tribal Council Members will not be permitted to serve as Commissioners, however, are eligible to chair and/or serve on individual committees;
3. Community Services, Education, Land Management and Cultural Preservation Committees shall remain in place, Commissioners shall not serve as Committee Chairs, or be appointed to other Boards such as DEA;
4. The Commissioners who would be up for Trust Board election in 2013 will serve until the end of their elected term. The Commissioners who would be up for Trust Board election in 2015 will serve until the end of their elected term;

OR

The members who would be up for election in 2013 will serve an additional year for the positions to be elected in the 2014 election. Positions currently up for election in 2015 will serve an additional year to be elected in 2016.

5. The Commission shall consist of five (5) commissioners, all of whom must be registered voters within the Delaware Tribe of Indians. The Tribal Council shall appoint the Chair of the Commission and the Commissioners shall choose a Vice-Chair and Secretary;
6. The Commission shall meet quarterly, or more often as necessary to review the implementation of the Plan;
7. All meetings of the Commission shall be public. The Commission shall have the privilege of executive session under the circumstances of a) when the question of moral turpitude of a Commissioner or Committee Chair or Member is raised or b) the privacy of an applicant is requested. A vote on any subject will take place in an open meeting;
8. Any action of the Commission shall require a quorum of at least 3 voting Commissioners;
9. The Chair of the Commission shall call and conduct all regular and special meetings of the Commission. The Chair may vote in Commission votes;
10. The Vice-Chair, in absence of the Chair, shall perform the duties of the Chair, assuming all duties, privileges and responsibilities of the Chair;
