

Opportunity for additional free candidate article in DIN

Questions for Council candidates:

Q: What is your primary passion within the Delaware Tribe? (Ex. Cultural, veterans, youth, business development, grants, etc.)

Q: What expertise or work experience can you bring to the council table?

Q: In what ways do you feel your particular expertise or experience can make a difference for the tribe?

Q: What do you feel is working toward a positive direction within the current council's endeavors?

Q: What do you feel needs improvement within a current council endeavor?

Q: What issue or project do you feel is of the utmost importance to the tribe at this time?

Q: Describe a way in which you would plan to pursue the issue of the most importance to you.

Q: What is a personal accomplishment you are the most proud of?

Please submit your answers to din@delawaretribe.org upon completion as soon as possible.

Please let the editorial committee know ASAP if you happen to have lengthy answers to allow for space in the DIN.

You may use din@delawaretribe.org to give notice. Or call 918-337-6590 to get a message to the editorial committee.

The DIN cannot accept any answers later than 5pm September 8, 2016.

These questions and answers are being offered free to all candidates as an optional article, your participation is not mandatory.