

THE TRIBAL DOMICILE OF THE DELAWARE TRIBE OF INDIANS

The affordable domestic domicile for reinsurers owned by vehicle dealers, agents, and other specialized producers.

Domestic

- No §953(d) election required
- You do not own a foreign corporation

Affordable

- One all inclusive fee
- No initial jurisdiction fees for domesticating an existing company

Efficient

- Electronic forms
- 3 day turnaround
- Direct access to regulators

- ◆ Just some of the insurance companies willing to cede business here: Assurant, Century Automotive Service Corporation, a MAPFRE Company, Courtesy Insurance Company, a JM&A Group Company Pekin Insurance, Plateau Insurance Company / Plateau Casualty Insurance Company, and Wesco Insurance Company, an AmTrust Financial Company
- ◆ Sixteen approved insurance managers forming companies in The Tribal Domicile

The “Treaty with the Delawares” was signed on September 17, 1778. Under the treaty, the United States recognized the Delaware Nation’s sovereignty. The 2013 U.S. Mint Native American dollar coin commemorates this treaty.

The Tribal Domicile of The Delaware Tribe of Indians

601 S. High St, Caney, KS 67333 ◆ www.delawaretribe.org/the-tribal-domicile

Allan Barnes ◆ Insurance Commissioner ◆ abarnes@delawaretribe.org ◆ (620) 879-2112 x2

THE TRIBAL DOMICILE OF THE DELAWARE TRIBE OF INDIANS

Why choose The Tribal Domicile

- ◆ The Tribal Domicile is a reinsurance domicile primarily focused on ARCs.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile regulators will take your call; there are no middlemen.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile has an “all in” annual fee. There are no separate fees for individual service requests or special services.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile is committed to being an electronic domicile that will operate at business speed not regulatory speed.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile has formation, renewal, and domestication forms that can be completed and submitted electronically.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile does not charge jurisdiction fees for domestications of existing companies in the first year.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile has laws and regulations, based on U.S. laws and regulations, written in plain language.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile has eliminated the challenge of opening a U.S. investment account as a foreign company.
- ◆ The Tribal Domicile licensed over 200 new and re-domesticated companies in 2017.

The legal support behind The Tribal Domicile

U.S legal pronouncements establish the power of The Tribal Domicile to be an Insurance Domicile:

- ◆ The U.S. Constitution recognizes Indian Tribes as separate from the federal government, the states, and foreign nations.
- ◆ An 1828 Supreme Court decision identified an Indian Tribe as a domestic, dependent, sovereign nation.
- ◆ The power to regulate commerce is an established power of a sovereign government.
- ◆ The Tribe’s power to regulate its commerce is derived from tribal sovereignty.
- ◆ A Tribe has all powers of a sovereign nation unless a U.S. treaty or federal statute removes a power.
- ◆ IRS regulations specifically list a Tribal corporation as a domestic corporation.

The Tribal Domicile of The Delaware Tribe of Indians

601 S. High St, Caney, KS 67333 ◆ www.delawaretribe.org/the-tribal-domicile

Allan Barnes ◆ Insurance Commissioner ◆ abarnes@delawaretribe.org ◆ (620) 879-2112 x2