

VISIONS offers free help, information, and training to Native American families of students with disabilities and the professionals that serve them across the country. Our main focus is on the educational needs of students with disabilities.

We believe informed parents are a child's best advocate, and that parents and professionals working together provide the best resources for our children.

About Us

This program, funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP), provides Parent Training and Information (PTI) services to Native American families across the country.

VISIONS helps to ensure that Native American families of children with the full range of disabilities have the training and information they need to prepare their children for not only school, but to be able to lead productive, independent lives to the fullest extent possible.

Families Make A Big Difference

Families are very important people in the lives of all children.

We are here to help you with your educational planning and decision making questions.
